LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, SUNDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 5, 1882.

NO. 55.

SENTENCED.

Guiteau to be Hanged by the Neck Until Dead.

HE WILL STRETCH HEMP JUNE 30, 1882.

Judge Cox Overrules Scoville's Motion for a New Trial, and Pronounces the Death Sentence.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Judge Cox sentenced Guiteau to be hanged June 30th, between the hours of 12 m. and 2 p. m., in the Washington jail.

IN COURT.
As soon as Judge Cox entered the courtroom this morning the Court was formally opened. The prisoner took his place in the dock and did not repeat his request of yesterday to be allowed to sit at the counsel's table.

Scoville arose and addressed the Court and asked permission to summon a certain witness. He said the person lived near by and his attendance could be secured in ten minutes.

Corkhill objected to the evident object of the counsel to postpone the case.

Scoville replied that he did not desire to postpone the matter. He only wished to call the attention of the Court to the importance of certain testimony.

OVERRULED.
Judge Cox began reading from a manuscript his decision on the motion for a new trial, reviewing the testimony carefully, and the grounds on which the motion was based. Judge Cox in summing up the case said: "I am unable to find any reason to grant the motion, which is therefore overruled."

Scoville—"I would like to note an exception to the ruling of the Court."

Col. Corkhill—"Your Honor, it now becomes my duty."

Scoville—"One moment, please, I would like to file in due form a motion which I referred to yesterday."

Scoville then filed his motion in arrest of judgment.

"GOD'S MAN."
Guiteau, who had been permitted to resume his seat at the counsel's table, arose and made one of his characteristic harangues, winding up by saying: "I am not afraid to die; I am here as God's man. Kill me to-morrow if you want to; I am God's man and I have been from the start."

ADDRESS TO THE PRISONER.
Judge Cox then proceeded to pass sentence, addressing the prisoner as follows: "You have been convicted of a crime, so terrible in its circumstances and so far-reaching in its results, that it has drawn upon you the horror of the whole world and the execrations of your countrymen. The excitement produced by such an offense made it no easy task to secure for you a fair and impartial trial; but you have had the power of the United States Treasury and of the Government in your service to protect you from violence and to procure evidence from all parts of the country. You have had as fair and impartial a jury as ever assembled in a court of justice. You have been defended by counsel with a zeal and devotion that merits the highest commendations, and I have certainly done my best to secure a fair presentation of your defense. Notwithstanding this you have been FOUND GUILTY.

It would have been a comfort to many people if the verdict of the jury had established the fact that your act was that of an irresponsible man. It would have left the people the satisfying belief that the crime of political assassination was something foreign to our institutions and to the civilization of our country. But the result has denied them that comfort. The country will accept it as a fact that such a crime can be committed, and the court will have to meet it with the highest penalty known to the criminal code, to

SERVE AS AN EXAMPLE
To all others. Your career has been so extraordinary that people might well at times have doubted your sanity; but you cannot but believe that when your great crime was committed you thoroughly understood the nature of the crime and its consequences. Your own testimony shows that you recoiled with horror from the idea. You say you prayed against it; you say that you thought it might be prevented. This shows that your conscience warned you against it, but by the wretched sophistry of your own mind you worked yourself up against the protest of your own conscience." In conclusion Judge Cox said: "It is the

SENTENCE OF THIS COURT
That you be conducted to the jail from whence you came and there be kept in confinement, until on Friday, the 30th day of June, 1882, you be taken to the place prepared for your execution within the walls of said jail, and there, between the hours of 12 m. and 2 p. m., you be hanged by the neck until you are dead, and may the Lord have mercy on your soul."

WOULD NOT CHANGE PLACES.
During the reading Guiteau stood apparently unmoved and with his gaze riveted upon the Judge, but when the final words were spoken, he struck the table violently and shouted: "And may the Lord have mercy upon your soul. I'd rather stand where I do than where that jury does and where you honor now stands!"

UNDER GUARD.
When Guiteau arrived at the jail he was at once taken to his cell and a guard placed over him. This precaution is always observed in cases of prisoners under sentence of death and will be rigidly adhered to in Guiteau's case, both by night and day.

There is no foundation for the report that Guiteau has committed suicide.

THE NOBLE RED MAN.

TUCSON, A. T., Feb. 4.—A Camp Thomas dispatch says that trouble has been brewing for some time between the White Mountain and San Carlos Indians, growing out of the late troubles at Cibola. On the night of the 2d, some of the San Carlos band were in the White Mountain Indian camp, when hot words were followed by shooting. One of the San Carlos Indians was instantly killed. Then a general conflict ensued. Several were wounded. News of the affair was received at San Carlos, when a band of scouts were sent out who captured eight prisoners, but not without considerable resistance, resulting in the wounding of three prisoners. Some of the prisoners, especially one, were concerned in the Cibola trouble. A number of the scouts are out, but nothing serious is expected to result, it being simply a feud among the Indians themselves.

A CROW OUTBREAK PROBABLE.
NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The Graphic's Washington special says: The War Department is informed unofficially, from Forts Keogh and Ellis, Montana, that it is quite probable there will be an outbreak of the Crow Indians in the spring. The Crows have been friendly to the whites ever since 1836.

THE CIBOLA SCOUTS SENTENCED.
The President today confirmed the sentence of death pronounced by court martial in case of the three Indian scouts, Dead Shot, Dandy Jim and Skippy, convicted of murder at Cibola, and ordered their execution on March third.

In the contest to maintain possession of the place, the greater part of the town was burned. Contests have taken place in other sections of Peru. Montero is reported killed by his troops. Juarez has obtained possession of Ayacucho, having defeated and killed Secada.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—The President of one of the roads connecting with the Union Pacific received a message to-day from an official of the latter road, now in New York, saying: "Do not be surprised at any time to hear of the consolidation of the Union and Central Pacific roads." Other private information, well authenticated, points very strongly in the same direction.

President Potter, of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, says the road has purchased neither the Denver and Rio Grande nor any other Denver road, as has been freely reported.

A KANSAS OPINION.
TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 4.—The Commonwealth's editorial says: Whatever may be the opinion in Boston it will be admitted here in the west that no compensation whatever can pay the Santa Fe road for the loss of its Pacific Coast terminus, and if it is found that Santa Fe cannot complete the Atlantic and Pacific as originally contemplated, or make arrangements for another through line equally advantageous, its true policy shall be to dispose of its stock in the Atlantic and build an independent line from Pueblo to San Francisco.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?
BOSTON, Feb. 4.—The Directors of the Atchafson, Topeka and Santa Fe road today issued the following circular: "Owing to the changes going on in the ownership of stock in the St. Louis and San Francisco Railway Company, the suspension of the sale of rights under a circular of this company, dated January 20, 1882, was requested until the effect of these changes could be known. Your Directors now, after mature consideration, are unanimously of the opinion that no further delay is necessary and subscription and dealing in rights under the circular should go on. They are also of the opinion that it is important for the interest of this company that the amount called for by the circular should be provided in full. Your Directors will individually subscribe for the full amount each is entitled to. The recent circular called for $16,000,000 for the completion of the Atlantic and Pacific roads."

GAS EXPLOSION.
The Grove Shaft Becomes the Tomb of Thirty-two Miners.

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 4.—Information was received last night of a gas explosion at the Grove shaft, in the Midlothian Coal Mines, at Chesterfield. Thirty-two men were caught underground. No details as yet received.

LATER.
COALFIELD, Va., Feb. 4.—The Grove shaft was the scene of a horrible explosion yesterday. It is surrounded to-day, despite the cold and snow, by hundreds of women and children. The appeals of mothers and wives for aid are heart rending.

NO HOPE.
A later dispatch states that there is little or no hope for any of the thirty-two men in the shaft. The gas testers went down nearly to the bottom of the pit three times, but were forced to retire on account of suffocation from smoke and gas. They report the pit on fire, but will make another effort this morning to search for the unfortunate. The news of the disaster spread very rapidly and in a short time a crowd had gathered. The scene is most distressing, as nearly every one had some relatives or friends among the entombed miners.

Heavy Rain and High Water.
SHREVEPORT, La., Feb. 4.—There has been a heavy rainfall here for the past 36 hours. An overflow of the whole country seems inevitable, lakes above here are higher than for six years. Many plantations above and below are already under water and levees are giving away.

Died Protesting Innocence.
ST. LOUIS, Feb. 4.—The Republican's Dallas special says: D. C. White, who murdered Geo. Conquest in Vanzandt county in January, 1878, was hanged at Canton to-day. He protested his innocence to the last.

A Tragedy.
TROY, N. Y., Feb. 4.—Wm. Jacobs killed his sister-in-law, Mrs. Adam Lenoaux and then killed himself. All belonged in Grafton.

WHAT TO DO WITH THE BOYS.

The question of what to do with our boys is a grave one, and should receive the immediate and earnest attention of all well-wishers of humanity. We have in this community a hundred or more—possibly two or three hundred—of boys who appear to be destitute of home training almost entirely, and are growing up hoodlums and semi-hoodlums, learning all the vices that when developed will master the man and fit him for the penitentiary. They congregate in squads at the street corners, at saloons, at places of amusement and at shooting galleries, and cultivate all the bad habits peculiar to the age. Their conversation is shocking in its profanity and vile to the lowest extreme in its vulgarity. They contaminate all within their reach, those of their own age as well as their younger associates, who readily copy from their elders. They are rude and ill-mannered, and many, very many, are already thieves.

What is to be done with them, and how can the annual growth of such a crop of jail-birds be prevented? The many attempts made by society to restrain the vicious youths of the land speak well for the humanity of the people, and shows the desire is healthy for a more healthful morality among the young, but it is questionable if the best channel has yet been found for this proper sentiment to develop itself in. We have been running to reform schools and work-houses of late, and have thrown overboard the good old ways of forty or fifty years ago when we remembered "Solomon in all his glory," and spared not the rod lest the child be spoiled. We have forgotten that the better way to restrain the youth is to cultivate within him a self-restraint that shall render bars and bolts unnecessary to deter him from doing wrong. We are inclined to remove him in early life from the influences of home, and parental instruction, and familiarize him at once with semi-prison life, and leave him surrounded with those as vicious as himself. It is no new doctrine to say that by oft viewing vice we are led to "pity them embrace." Will not this apply as well to the gathering of the vicious in a reform-school as to association with the bad in other places? Will not the semi-hardened, made worse by being restrained of liberty, be more likely to grow like the more hardened, and instead of reforming, come forth from their incarceration with a firmer purpose to prey upon society and practice the methods their prison associates have taught them?

We confess we are lost for a suggestion that shall work a successful reformation in the young vagabonds who fill our streets, and are a pest on all occasions. But we feel the importance of the subject should lead to investigation and immediate action. And in the absence of better suggestions we would call attention to the absolute need of a sterner home authority, a complete parental control, obtained if possible by the law of kindness, which can be made to be the master, if used in the right time and in the right manner. And failing in this the parent should assert the authority vested by nature in him or her and compel obedience, by the use of the rod if necessary. Children should not be allowed to congregate on the street at any time, particularly at night, and neither allowed abroad or at places of amusement unless accompanied by parent or guardian. The police should be required by a stringent ordinance to break up all street gatherings and take to their homes instead of the lock-up all boys who are abroad for any other than legitimate purposes and without parental consent. The children of the city should be enrolled and classified as to schools, and their attendance made compulsory, and the police should be notified by the teachers of all absentees without a reasonable excuse, and the police should hunt them up and take them to the schools. If this or a similar plan could be adopted, and should be seconded heartily by parents, we believe the needed reform would be helped along, many of the lads now developing hoodlum tendencies would be saved, and the query with which we commenced be answered.

GUITEAU says he wouldn't exchange places with Judge Cox. We rather expect the Judge will agree with Guiteau on that proposition.

SAN DIEGO AGAIN.

It is gratifying to know that the castigation administered to the San Diego papers has brought about a partial reform in those sheets and that they have been compelled to acknowledge the importance of our section. The Union pays Los Angeles a truly fine compliment for its wonderful resources. So far so good, but the paper only half does us justice, for it still grows at us for trying to secure harbor facilities immediately at hand commensurate with our wants. And it also charges us with being avaricious of all the good things, financial and political. Well, we own up that we do want many things, and we plead guilty to the charge of being determined to work to obtain as many of them as we can. We want a postoffice building. We want a Custom District and a custom house building at San Pedro. We want one of our good citizens made into a Governor, another into a member of Congress. And in the sweet bye and bye we want the State divided and Los Angeles made the capital of the new empire. Then our truly esteemed friend will come to see us in the capacity of a Senator from one of our back country districts, and he will vote for an appropriation to build an insane asylum and a state prison, and then—the editor of the Union may come and abide with us—unable to get back.

An esteemed contemporary speculates with great gusto upon a supposed split in the Republican party. We fear with our friend the wish is father to the thought, and there it endeth. The voice that promulgates this idea has a remarkably familiar sound, and has often reckoned without a host. There is no split in the Republican party and there will not be. The few soreheads who are contending for the crumbs of office do not constitute the Republican party. Should the Star route men all leave, and take Gorman with them to their natural affinities, the Democrats, it will only reduce the Republican majority a few hundred. Don't mistake a skulker for the main army, and don't imagine that the breeze you think you see will stir the water below the surface, for "Tis but the flapping of the sail, And not a rent made by the gale."

PHYSIOLOGY.

Mrs. Dr. Anna M. L. Potts Next Wednesday Evening.

On next Wednesday evening Mrs. Dr. Potts, who has made herself notorious throughout the United States as an eloquent speaker, will lecture in this city. She has been in Los Angeles before and lectured to good houses. Her discussions on physiology are both instructive and interesting. The Sacramento Daily Bee says of the lady:

Those who were thoughtful enough to attend the Lecture of Anna M. L. Potts, M. D., at the Congregational Church last evening, were well repaid therefor. The lady is one of the most fluent and graceful speakers of her sex that we have heard, and she handles her subject in a style that few of the public speakers among men are capable of.

Dr. Potts is evidently a lady of great experience in her profession, and one whose method of imparting useful knowledge to others makes her a benefactor of her race.

Judging from her learned, sarcastic and humorous discourse last evening, that to-night will be of a most interesting as well as instructive character.

Her first lecture will be on next Wednesday evening, at the M. E. Church on Fort street.

The Weather Report.

Observations taken by the U. S. Army Signal Service at 8.15 o'clock last night are as follows: Barometer, 30.06; Thermometer, 58.31; Wind, N.E.—7 miles per hour; fair. Maximum thermometer, 77; Minimum thermometer, 47.

A resident of this city has just received a letter from a friend in Denver, stating that owing to the unprecedented rush of people from the Eastern States and Europe to that city, there are about five thousand people out of employment. It is a noteworthy fact that Los Angeles is receiving a constant stream of wealthy residents of Denver, all coming here to stay, and are investing money liberally.

Frank Oakley, who will be remembered as the private secretary of the late French Consul, M. Morenau, for some time and afterwards an occasional localizer on some of the city papers has received a sentence of three years for robbery and forging checks at Guaymas. Gin was the cause.

A tasty frame residence costing $850 has just been completed in East Los Angeles for Mr. James Hanley of the S. P. R. R. It was rented long before its completion, which indicates the great demand for houses over there, as well as on this side the river.

Simon, when the moon fooled again and no rain, has become completely disgusted with science and the scientific, and has purchased a bayonet and will hereafter make his own calculations.

W. A. Henderson, a prominent citizen of San Luis Obispo, has recently located permanently in this city, and will open a cigar and tobacco store at 52 Spring street in a day or two.

Mr. T. A. Templeton sold six lots in the Morris vineyard tract yesterday for cash. Two drunks were yanked in by the boys last night.

Prepare for the dry season by beginning to economize now. Why pay fifteen dollars for a set of teeth when Dr. Burke of the City of Paris Dental Rooms will make you a first-class set for ten dollars.

Lodging House, Fifth street, east of Main; new house, sunny rooms, furnished or unfurnished. Mrs. H. Hewitt.

Other Fellows Think So Too.

There's just one thing a man can have In all this world of woe and strife, That makes his business not too bad, And that one thing's an easy wife.

I put my boots just where it suits, And find them where I put them too; That is a thing, you must allow, A chap can seldom do.

I leave my papers on my desk; She never dusts them in a heap, Or takes to light the kitchen stove The very one I want to keep.

On winter nights my cozy dame Will warm her toes before the fire; She never scolds about the lamp, Or wants the wick a trifle higher.

On Sundays she is not so fine, But what her ruffles I can spare; I light my pipe just where I please, And spill the ashes on the rug.

The bed is never filled with "ahams"— A thing some women vilely plan To worry servants half to death, And spoil the temper of a man.

She lets me sleep to any hour, And never fusses about my bed, If it just happens now and then, To be quite late when I come in.

I tell you Jack, if you would wed, Just get a gal who lets things run; She'll keep her temper like a lamb, And help you on to lots of fun.

Don't look for money, style, or show, Or wish her beauty, for she'll change; Just take the one who laughs at fate— Who laughs, and shows she doesn't care.

You think, perhaps, our household ways Are just perchance a little mixed; Oh, when they get too horrid bad, We stir about and get things fixed.

What compensation has a man When he is made a battledown? If home is made a battleground, And life one long, eternal row?

Fresh importation of Havana cigars just received at Edelman & Co's Key West Cigar Store.

The fire department was called out about noon yesterday. Cause—The burning of a small adobe house in the vicinity of the Capitol Mills.

John Wiley, the popular clerk at E. E. Bacon's grocery store has taken a pass to go on his ranch for a short time. Particulars not all to be told at present.

The Soledad fighting case was called before Judge Fisher yesterday morning. The testimony for the people was partly heard and the case was postponed until Monday at 10 A. M.

Two members of the Smith family were arrested and tried before Judge Adams yesterday for being drunk on the streets. They both got the regular dose in the chain gang.

W. B. Norton has just completed the plans for an elegant story and a half cottage, to be built by G. F. Mohn on the corner of Spring and Fifth streets. It will cost about $2,000.

One of the women who was arrested for the Wilmington robbery yesterday, discharged by Judge Fisher yesterday, it being plain to the court that she was not the party wanted.

M. H. Nagle, who was arrested day before yesterday, charged with stealing $35 from a woman on Spring street, pleaded not guilty in Judge Adams' court yesterday. His trial was set for Thursday, at 10 A. M.

Mr. S. L. Sours has resumed the manufacture of gloves in this city. This is another important manufacturing industry worthy of a helping hand which could be developed into a business of large proportions.

The Los Angeles Debating Society is evidently gaining ground steadily. Much more interest is manifested in the undertaking than formerly, and the attendance is larger. They meet in Judge Adams' rooms in Temple block.

Ventura people are looking around in this county after good pasture lands for their hogs. Some of them have engaged lands in Los Nietos valley and El Monte. Evidently Ventura county has fared worse for feed than this county.

Nittinger, the employment man has found the season too dry here for his purposes and will remove to where the pastures or the people are greener. W. D. Mack succeeds to his business but it will hereafter be conducted on a different plan.

At 2:45 it looks like rain. Sky overcast and wind south. Can't fool us any more, though. The old Indian rain sign is the only one we will accept any more—that was: "When it's dark all round and pouring down in the middle," then we'll believe it's going to rain.

Can you see the Tin Can that is coming Down the Street. How Fast it Runs. It is Chasing a Yaller Dog. The Dog is Running. Too. Can the Little Boy run as Fast as the Can and the Dog? No, he Can Not, but he will try, when he sees the Man who owns the Dog.

Do you see those two men walking down the street? The one leaning on the other's arm is a printer. No, he is not sick—he is only "diced." He has to work very hard, poor fellow. No, he is not going to talk the man to death. He is going to strike him for a "two-bit" piece.

PERSONAL MENTION.

It is reported that Messrs. Sanguinette and Rivera will shortly return from Europe, and that they contemplate erecting a fine block in place of the buildings recently burned on Main street.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

What Has Taken Place in the City During the Past Week.

THE COMING MAMIE PERRY CONCERT.

During the past week gate swinging and love making under the orange trees has been in order, for the weather has been superb, and the moonlight nights were never more beautiful than at present. The society editor of the Times has noticed one thing in Los Angeles, that is that there seems to be more young ladies on the streets lately, and a bird's-eye view of the principal thoroughfares from an upper window reveals the fact that Los Angeles has as many pretty girls as any city in the United States. Why they should stay indoors so much and hide their beauty has always been a conundrum, for there never was a better climate in the world to be outdoors in.

A SOCIAL.

The Good Templars had a grand blow-out Friday night. The hall was filled, and all were well pleased with the following excellent programme: Duett, by Misses Schickford and Hobbs; recitation, by Miss Knott; vocal solo, by Miss Anna Smith; piano solo, Miss May Giberson; recitation, Miss Ada Baxter; duett, piano and organ, Misses Barney and Hobbs; recitation, Mrs. C. H. Edwards; vocal solo, Miss Hawkins; imitation cornet, Mr. C. H. Edwards; recitation, by Tom Barnes and a piano solo by Miss Emma.

After this they adjourned to the dining hall, where a lunch fit for the gods was partaken of.

PERRY CONCERT.

It is with great pleasure we announce the date of Miss Mamie Perry's concert at Turn-Verein Hall. She has fixed upon Saturday evening, Feb. 18, and Los Angeles will do honor to that occasion to the young prima donna who has won the highest admiration from the best musical critics of Europe—those of Milan, Italy—where she is now prosecuting her studies for nearly two years past.

PASADENA'S SOCIAL EVENT.

A Gathering at the Hurlburt Mansion and Who Were There.

The social event of the season occurred at the elegant residence of Mr. Hurlburt, on Orange Grove avenue, on Friday evening last, it being the occasion of the Presbyterian Church social.

The evening was most happily spent in music, games, etc., the former being exceptionally fine, Miss Hurlburt favoring those present with a number of solos, both vocal and instrumental. Miss Freeman also played a solo on the piano, displaying great talent as a pianist.

Mr. Hurlburt, Mrs. Bangs, Miss Jessie Banbury and N. C. Carter were also "instrumental," i. e., in the way of providing amusement in the way of games, etc., during the evening. About 9 o'clock music was announced, after which the young folks repaired to the music room and indulged in the "Terpsichorean," while those gentlemen that so desired were escorted to the smoking room by the host and indulged in the "weed."

The company departed at about 10:30, wishing the genial host and hostess and their accomplished daughter a long life and a happy one. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hurlburt, I. B. Clapp, W. TALKS DUTCH.

An Old Countryman Learns Something New.

Since the telephone was invented much fun has been afforded to persons using the instrument. Almost every newspaper in the United States has given jokes, etc., on the subject, and the variety stage has taken it up and made fun for the theatre goers.

But the best telephone joke heard of, in these parts at least, took place the other day. A German lady stepped into a drug store and asked to talk to a German physician over the telephone.

The machine was placed in order and a German conversation was kept up for a few minutes.

As soon as the conversation was over and the lady had disappeared, an old countryman, who had been all attention, remarked with astonishment:

"I've heard a great deal about that air machine, but I'll be glad if I knew it would talk Dutch before."

Refreshing.

Mr. F. K. Krauth, editor of the Alameda Encinal, the handsomest paper on the coast, with one exception, looked in on the Minion-Times yesterday.—LOS ANGELES TIMES.

Thank you, Mr. Times, for your thoughtful exception. Of course the Press and Horticulturalist stands at the head of the list, and it shows a generous consideration on your part to so readily acknowledge the situation.—Riverside Press and Horticulturalist.

More snow over your way, Bro. Holt?—you take things so cool.

E. H. Sweetser, Secretary of the Old Tunnel Mining and Milling Company of San Rafael, returned to this city a day or two ago. He states that owing to the rains and the snow in the mountain ranges, they have been unable to remove their machinery from San Diego, and are still waiting for the roads to become passable.

At Real del Castillo, nearly one hundred miles south of San Diego, the snow lay in the plaza to the depth of eighteen inches, and many persons who had lived there for forty years never before saw snow fall there.

Parties in town yesterday from the vicinity of Wilmington reported that although the winter was so very pretty deep it is now commencing to come up in spite of the cold snap. A large acreage of wheat and barley have been sown, but the barley is making the most headway. It is the general impression that ordinarily good local rains will secure fair crops.

Mr. Edwin Baxter, attorney at law, and Mr. John H. Cotton, conveyancer and patentee of the "Cotton Real Estate Abstract System," have formed a co-partnership and will engage in the law, real estate and abstract business at room 80, Temple block. These gentlemen are thoroughly reliable and competent. See announcement elsewhere.

The choir of the Fort Street M. E. Church will give another of their very entertaining, praise services this evening. On this occasion they will be assisted by the Misses Smith, with some very fine instrumental music. As on former occasions the church will undoubtedly be packed.

B. M. Thayer, who has been engaged in building houses to let, has just completed the third one, a large and well appointed lodging house on Fifth street, east of Main for Mrs. Hewitt, a lady who will take pleasure in accommodating those who wish rooms. Mr. Thayer will build two additional houses immediately.

The City Attorney reported on the Hancock Johnson road leading to San Gabriel, and stated that he had examined into the matter and found that the old road had been obstructed by reservoir No. 5 and not by Mr. Johnson, but that the road closed up was a new one and Mr. Johnson owned the land.

Also that the hose ordered purchased was correct, and recommended the purchase. Order filed.

The City Surveyor reported on the Johnson road and believed that the old road did not run where the road had been obstructed but had been destroyed by reservoir No. 5. Referred to the Board of Public Works.

The report of the Health Officer was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The monthly report of the Secretary of the Board of Education was read and referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Moore said that before the bills were referred to the Finance Committee he would ask that the salaries of the city officers be raised.

A schedule of salaries was read and warrants ordered drawn. Other bills referred to Committee on Finance.

The Board of Public Works reported on the grading of Sainevain street, and offered a resolution stating the work to be done. Adopted.

Also to change and improve the grade at Charity and Court House street. Recommendation ordered carried out.

The petition of the Gas Company, stating that it was furnishing gas to the city without compensation, and asking that the Council take some action.

A contract was then read between the City and the Gas Company from Jan. 25, 1882, to March 25, 1882, under the same terms as the old contract.

A motion was made to adopt the report, but lost by a vote of ten to two.

The question was reconsidered and the contract adopted.

Mr. Cohn moved to advertise for contracts for a space of two months.

At this stage of the proceedings a lengthy argument took place. The City Attorney took up the question and stated that he did not believe this was the proper time to advertise for a new contract, as the Supreme Court had not taken a decisive step, in that it has not yet sent a remittitur to the Superior Court of this county, and that Mr. Simpkins, the Superintendent, had not dismissed the suits, and it was not known whether his attorney would petition the Supreme Court for a rehearing.

Mr. Cohn withdrew his motion to advertise.

W. R. Rowland put in a bid to feed the city prisoners for 50c. per head.

J. H. Garrett put in a bid to feed the prisoners for 36c. per head.

Both bids were referred to the Finance Committee.

The contract was awarded to Hamilton & Co., and the City Attorney instructed to draw a contract, the work to be finished by March 5th.

The petition of J. G. De Turk asking that his city taxes be reduced, was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

A DEMAND FOR SEATS.

The Mamie Perry Concert on the Eighteenth.

Although the Mamie Perry concert will not come off until the 18th inst., when it was announced that reserved seats could be had at Wangeman's music store yesterday people flocked in so that it was believed every seat would be taken before the day was over.

This is good proof that the people of Los Angeles appreciated the sweet singing and will give her an ovation that but few stars on the lyric stage have ever received. Miss Perry is a hard student and deserves all the honor her native place can give her.
